Foreword

In presenting our yearbook to you, the 1969-70 AQUILA Staff would like to pay tribute to the three courageous men who made the "feat of Apollo 11" and the "One Giant Leap" possible.

Youth possesses a need to excel, to reach new heights; a need to be better. All this makes us able to face that emotional giant leap -

Dedication

MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL OXENDER

Thanks

The 1970 AQUILA is dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Oxender, who have loyally and industriously served the students and faculty of North Central for seven years.

Mrs. Oxender has fulfilled the positions of school librarian, Spanish I,II teacher, sixth grade teacher, Honor Society advisor, Library Club advisor, and has been a class advisor.

Mr. Oxender has served as teacher and Jr. High Principal, and has employed a stable and steadfast hand in each one.

The Annual Staff of "70" gratefully acknowledges the unselfish time and effort Mr. and Mrs. Oxender spend to make our school a success!

Who would believe that the lively freshmen of 1966 would be leaving North Central in 1970 as dignified graduates. Well, maybe we're not all that dignified and maybe we're just as ornery, but we certainly have come a long way in four years.

We began preparing for our senior year, when as freshmen, we had a highly successful donut sale. Unbelievably, we did manage to get some work done in between pranks.

As sophomores we sponsored the movie "Quo Vadis" and added to our treasury with an auction. While continuing our "liveliness," we also found out that water fountains do not remain attached to walls when extreme pressure is applied.

Our junior year saw an increase in activities as we were in charge of noon candy sales, as well as concessions at athletic events, sponsored the movie "A Patch of Blue," put on a play "Three Fingers In The Door" and found time to put together a memorable prom, "Stairway to the Stars."

Magazine sales kicked off our senior year financially. We did take time out from making most of being seniors and continuing our by now well-established pattern of "pranksterishness" and sponsored the Christmas Dance. Highlight of the year was, of course, the senior trip.

On May 31, 1970, we solemnly marched up the aisle in the gym, listened to the commencement speakers, and then received our passports to the future - our diplomas. Fifty-five of us had "launched" towards the future. The question that remains is "Where shall we anchor?"

Our Junior Year. We finally are out from under the torture of being called underclassmen. We received our rings on September 22 and really felt like Juniors then. This year we had to get busy and earn money for our prom and banquet that would be held at the end of the year.

We started our money-making activities at the Carnival and had a car bash, a home-made candy booth, and concessions. For our extra activity, we held a spaghetti supper into which we put a lot of work. At the Home and Products Show we had a roulette wheel and, of course, our concessions. Throughout the basketball season we had candy and pop sales at ball games and also an added extra, hotdogs. There was no noon candy sale because of the machines which were added to the cafeteria this year.

Besides making money we also worked with the seniors and put on one play, "Chicken Every Sunday."

We ended our busy year with our prom, "Romance In Rome" which was a beautiful end to a wonderful year.

Sophomore Officers

This year we felt a little more experienced than as freshmen and decided to work to pile up a little money in our treasury and have a lot of fun.

For the carnival we held a ring toss which went over so well that we had it again for the Home and Products Show.

In the parade which preceded the Home and Products Show we made a float to advertise the movie we sponsored "To Sir With Love." Our other project for the year was a Roller Skating Party.

To get our minds off money-making and work, we decided to have a class party at Lake La Su Ann.

The climax to the year was when we received our class rings in May.

We now look forward to next year with hopes of making it our best year yet.

Freshman Officers

This year we entered the doors of good old North Central, very scared, little freshmen. Somehow, however, we managed to survive the year in spite of being initiated (several times), and often bullied by the upperclassmen.

We started our activities in high school by having a dart throw at the Carnival. Our booth for the Home and Products Show was, however, rained out.

We had two money-making activities: a combination car wash and bake sale, and the first dance of the school year which featured the "Sound Unlimited."

As the year drew to a close we eagerly anticipated next year when we would join the initiators instead of being on the receiving end of pranks.

G.A.A. Basketball Season Successful

1969-70 was a successful year for the G.A.A. with an excellent varsity basketball record and the addition of gymnastics to the activities of the organization. Throughout the year the girls also participated in volleyball, track and bowling.

One of the early highlights of the year was the arrival of the G.A.A. jackets which girls with a minimum of 1,800 points proudly wear.

Beginning and ending the season on a winning streak made the 1969-70 varsity record, including tournament play, 9-13. With seven seniors on the team, next year's openings will be many. However, the highly successful junior varsity has several fine players to fill these openings.

Winning five of the last seven games, the team sparked a spirit which enabled them to make a showing in the tournaments which showed pride and determination.

This year's Junior Varsity holds great promise for the future as they battled to an 8-0 record in the league and captured first place in both the Buckeye Border League and in Williams County.

With so many seniors leaving the varsity next year, this very balanced team offers much talent in the way of replacements.

A large, billowing white cloud or smoke plume rises from the bottom of the frame, expanding as it goes up. The plume has a textured, puffy appearance with various shades of white and light gray. The background is a dark, almost black, sky. The word "ELEMENTARY" is printed in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters at the bottom center of the image.
